

30. – 31. Mai 2022

Salzburg, Österreich

Curriculum vitae

Dr. Kerstin Breithaupt-Grögler

Kerstin Breithaupt-Grögler (MD, PhD) studied medicine at J.W. GoetheUniversity Frankfurt, Germany (1976-1983). After state approval as physician and medical thesis (doctor of medicine, summa cum laude) worked as Junior Research Fellow at Center of Physiology, University Frankfurt (1983-1985).

From 1986 to 1995 Research Physician / Clinical Investigator at Center of Cardiovascular Pharmacology, Mainz-Wiesbaden, Germany and Board Certification in Clinical Pharmacology. Since 1995 working as independent consultant in clinical pharmacology and medical writer. More than 20 years experience in planning, conduct, evaluation and reporting of clinical trials, writing of expert reports including safety dossiers, clinical summaries / overviews, scientific presentation and publication (>30 original papers, >90 abstracts and oral presentations).

Founding member of the German Association of Applied Human Pharmacology (AGAH e.V., Hamburg), Board Member since 1997; President 2012-2014, Past President 2014-2018, since 2018 AGAH Regent / Consultant to the AGAH Board. AGAH Delegate to EUFEMED (European Federation for Exploratory Medicines Development, Brussels). Member of scientific programme committees, conduct of workshops and conferences, training courses in exploratory medicines development, qualification of study teams.